Minister Inaugurates Councils of Fed Polys

*Mal Adamu Adamu
Hon Minister of Education*

The Honourable Minister of Education, Mal. Adamu Adamu has inaugurated the newly reconstituted Governing Councils of Federal Polytechnics in the country with a charge to members of the councils to ensure judicious use of resources that come to their institutions.

FG Reconstitutes Boards of FME Parastatals

President Muhammadu Buhari GCFR has approved the reconstitution of the Governing Boards of 19 parastatals under the Federal Ministry of Education with the appointment of Prof Modupe Adelabu as the Chairman of the Governing Board of the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE).

The Honourable Minister of Education, Mal. Adamu Adamu who conveyed the approval in a release which was signed by Mrs. P.C Ihuoma, the Director Press in the Ministry, said the reconstitution of the Minister warned.

Mal. Adamu stated that the ministry decided to subject members to a retreat in order to equip them with the knowledge and skills required to perform effectively and efficiently. He said, "Through retreats, government equips members with the knowledge and skills to lead this level of education to higher positions."

While reiterating President Buhari's commitment to rapid development of the Technical and Vocational Education sector, the minister lamented that efforts of government in this regard are hampered by the persistent corruption in the sector.

He urged council members to embrace the whistle blowing policy of the present administration, noting that the policy is constitutional and also a long standing cultural responsibility of all citizens.

According to the minister "Whistle blowing should not be restricted to financial crimes alone, it is mandatory for all stakeholders in the education sector to utilize and embrace it even if it is about yourself.”

He further urged the members to delve into agricultural skills training in line with the current government's policy of diversifying the economy to non-oil sector. He noted that skills development is prominent in the recently launched Economic Recovery and Growth Plan, 2017 – 2020, as a strategy for improving employment outcomes and increasing productivity and growth in Nigeria.

“The responsibility of providing Nigeria's large young population with the knowledge and skills needed by the labour market largely rest on you. You must, therefore provide the right skills to prepare graduands for the labour market”, the Minister stated.

Also, the Honourable Minister of State for Education, Prof. Anthony Anwuka has urged members of the governing councils to take their appointment seriously as their role is vital to national development.

Prof. Anwuka said councils are not meant to fight management of their institutions, rather the members are supposed to provide wise counsel to their managements to ensure that things are done accordingly stressing that, “remember that there is no money in these institutions to be shared, rather council members are supposed to bring in something into the various polytechnics and not take out, so if you are looking to take out instead of bringing in, then you are in the wrong place”.

The Chairman of Senate Committee on Tertiary Education and TETFund, Sen. Jibrin Barau and his counterpart at the House Committee on Tertiary Education and Services, Rt. Hon. Aminu Suleiman also delivered their goodwill messages in which they reiterated the support of the National Assembly to take Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) in Nigeria to a higher level.

The ceremony proceeded with a retreat in which the Executive Secretary of National Board for Technical Education, Dr. M.A Kazaure presented the lead paper on “Role of Governing Councils in the Administration of Polytechnics”.

Other presenters included the Director of State Security Service on “Tertiary Education and Security Challenges in Nigeria”; Federal Character Principles, its Implementation, Challenges and Prospects in Tertiary Institutions”, by the Chairman Federal Character Commission; and “Corruption, Ethics and Extant Rules” by Chairman ICPC and Chairman EFCC.

Others also included “Public Procurement Act 2007 and Public Procurement Processes” by the Director General B P P ; and “Budgetary and Budget Implementation Processes” by the Director, Budget Office, Federal Ministry of Finance.

In a vote of thanks, the Chairman of the Governing Council of the Federal Polytechnic, Damaturu, Alh. Mohammad Abubakar while thanking the government for the confidence it reposed in them gave the assurance that members shall not do anything that will damage their reputations.

DG ITF Visits NBTE, Seeks Collaboration with Board

The Director General of Industrial Training Fund (ITF), Sir Joseph Ari has expressed the need for collaboration with the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE) to uplift Technical and Vocational Education (TVE) in line with the present administration policy of diversifying the economy to enhance national growth.

The Director General who stated this during a courtesy visit to the Board in Kaduna said he was also at the Board to consult with stakeholders including NBTE, NUC and NCCE on how to reorganize the Students Industrial Work Experience Scheme (SIWES) in order to move the scheme forward.

He said his agency intends to organize a stakeholder's conference later in the year to brainstorm on how the scheme should be run stressing that the conference will require the active participation of chief executives. He further disclosed that ITF was repositioning with a view to becoming a leading partner in the production of qualified and highly skilled manpower to enhance production in the industrial sector and to also export skills to the rest of the world.

The Director General further urged the Executive Secretary of NBTE to agree to present a paper at the proposed stakeholders conference which he noted is intended to leverage the SIWES scheme and take comprehensive decision on how the scheme should go.

He appealed to the Board to grant approval for the mounting of four new programmes by the Fund and

Responding, the NBTE Executive Secretary, Dr. Masa'udu Adamu Kazaure congratulated Sir Joseph Ari on his appointment as the DG, ITF and gave the assurance of the Board's cooperation with the Fund. The Executive Secretary said there is the need to partner with the industries to know the manpower and skills they need to transform Nigeria into an industrialized nation. He recommended the need for training of the ITF staff as quality assurance managers.

He further announced that the Honourable Minister of Education has approved the request of the Fund to establish and operate an Innovation Enterprise Institution (IEIs).

The Executive Secretary urged the ITF to introduce the Teacher Industrial Training Scheme (TIWES) to also afford the teachers industry experience.

PCNI to Collaborate with NBTE on TVE Training in North East

A delegation from the Office of the Presidential Committee on North East Initiative (PCNI) subcommittee on education was at the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE) in Kaduna to seek for collaboration with the Board in the development of standard education and to be a major stakeholder especially in the area of Technical and Vocational Training in Nigeria's North East.

Engr. Mohammed Gambo Umar, mni who represented the chairperson of the committee, Prof. Hauwa Biu stated that the body was set up by President Buhari with regards to situation of education in Nigeria, and north-east in particular. He said the body is charged with the responsibilities to coordinate and facilitate all aspects of education in the North-East and to promote accountability and transparency.

"About 49.8% of North East children are dropouts with Borno State having the highest number, while the literacy rate stands at 18.1% only, the rest are stack illiterates which forms the bedrock of insurgency in the region" Engr. Umar noted.

He further stated that the major problems facing education in the zone include unqualified teachers, inadequate infrastructure, poorly equipped and insufficient laboratories among others.

While urging the Board to assist the committee in fulfilling its mandate and also consider appointing the PCNI liaison officer in the Board, Engr Umar gave the assurance that the Committee was working hard to reposition education through the provision of infrastructures, Technical Vocational Education and Training and skills development.

Responding, the Executive Secretary of NBTE, Dr. M. A Kazaure appreciated the PCNI for the visit, congratulated the team on a well-deserved appointment. He gave the assurance that the Board will give its maximum cooperation to the Committee to achieve the goal for which it was created.

The Executive Secretary stated that the different categories of youths should be given skills through training with the National Vocational Qualifications (NVQ) to rise through the six stages of NVQ which is equivalent to HND.

He advised that vocational centres and technical colleges should be established, stressing that each Technical College is supposed to have four vocational centres in a local government and for every four Technical Colleges there should be a polytechnic.

The Executive Secretary who pledged the Board's readiness to collaborate with the Committee announced the appointment of Engr. Suleiman Yusuf as the PCNI Desk Officer.

NABTEB Seeks Upgrade of Curriculum

The Registrar, National Business and Technical Examination Board (NABTEB), Prof. Ifeoma M. Isiugo-Abanihe has said that there is the need to upgrade the NABTEB curriculum beyond the level of master craftsman going by the comprehensive nature of Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET). The Registrar stated this when she led a delegation of the management of NABTEB on a courtesy visit to the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE) in Kaduna.

Prof. Isiugo-Abanihe commended the Board's effort in taking the TVET sector to the next level, but decried the situation whereby some universities reject NABTEB certificates at the point of entry with the excuse that the NABTEB curriculum is not up to the entry requirements. She therefore called for the review of the curriculum to be at par with NECO, WAEC.

She further commended the collaboration between her Board and the NBTE on the development and institutionalization of the National Vocational Qualification Framework (NVQF) in the country, noting that it will make the certification more flexible and robust. She expressed the need for training of more NABTEB assessors to meet the requirements of the NVQF.

Responding, the Executive Secretary Dr. Masa'udu Adamu Kazaure called for resuscitation of the Joint Action Committee (NBTE-NABTEB) where issues concerning the two bodies can be tabled.

Dr. Kazaure argued that NABTEB certificate holders are supposed to be feeders to the polytechnic and not the universities. He said the curriculum is based on the needs of the society hence; there is the need Division NBTE, Mallam Hussein Muhammad advised that technical and science subjects should not be separated in the technical colleges. He said another major problem is that of conflict between NERDC and NBTE curriculum. He urged that the no accreditation no examination law should be enforced on the Technical Colleges.

Also, the Desk Officer, NVQF Engr. S.M. Yusuf who spoke on the certification of the NVQs informed that NABTEB has the sole responsibility for quality assurance and awarding of certificates.

He said that NVQF was born due to lack of placement of some certificates in the scheme of service.

SERVICOM Holds 1st National Policy Dialogue on Service Delivery

The Secretary to the Government of the Federation, Engr. Babachir David Lawal has described effective service delivery as the major pillar for realizing the change Agenda of the present administration

Engr. Lawal stated this during the opening ceremony of the 1st National Policy Dialogue on service delivery organized by SERVICOM under the auspices of the Office of the Secretary to the Federal Government held at the State House Banquet Hall, Abuja.

He said the aim of the forum is to seek ways to critically enhance citizen -focused Service Delivery, and sensitize the public and decision makers in the public and private sectors on citizen's expectations.

He also added that the dialogue will seek to improve government connection with the citizens noting that as government look for effective and efficient medium for provision of goods and services for the benefits of its citizens the efficacy of public service is critical. In her address, the Head of Civil Service of the Federation, Mrs. Winifred Oyo-Ita said the dialogue came at a time the service was developing a new and oriented Civil Service in Nigeria and tasked SERVICOM to intensify its sensitization drive in all government agencies toward quality and effective service delivery to Nigerians.

She disclosed that the result oriented service planned by her office will focus on culture change in the public service that will evolve through a crop of Efficient Productive, Incorruptible and Citizen Centered (EPIC) service.

While commending SERVICOM for initiating the policy dialogue, she explained that the effort points to the present administration's genuine concern for efficient service delivery in the country. Dignitaries in attendance included Ministers, chief Executives of Government Parastatals, top military and paramilitary personnel as well as SERVICOM Nodal Officers in all the MDAs.

NBTE Scribe Commends Customs Boss for Elevating HND Holders

Executive Secretary of the National Board for Technical Education, Dr. Masa'udu Adamu Kazaure has expressed deep joy over the abolishment of the dichotomy that existed between the Higher National Diploma (HND) and Bachelor of Science (BSc) at the Nigeria Customs Service (NCS.)

Dr. Kazaure who conveyed this in a commendation letter to the Comptroller General of Customs, Col. Hameed Ibrahim Ali (Rtd) said the elevation of HND holders to Grade Level 8 was in line with the Circular ref. HCSF/EPO/EIR/CND/100/ST/98 dated 8th September, 2016 from the office of the Head of Civil Service of the Federation.

“Your prompt compliance with the circular has not only portray the Custom Service as progressive, but a pacesetter in the ongoing service wide reform initiative of the present administration”, the Executive Secretary said.

While commending the CGC for his fair-rounded approach, Dr.

Kazaure expressed his profound appreciation on behalf of the Technical and Vocational Education (TVE) sector in Nigeria.

In his response through a letter referenced NCS/ADM/MGT/001 /S.29/C, the CGC thanked the Management of the Board and stated that the approach was in tandem with the 3 key point mandate given to him on assumption of office to restructure, reform and improve revenue generation.

Col. Hameed who noted that the implementation of the mandate was initially misconstrued for other sinister motives, expressed his determination to bring sanity to the service and the country in general.

It would be recalled that the Comptroller General of Customs had earlier abolished the dichotomy between HND and BSc at the Nigeria Customs Service by adopting and implementing government directive to bridge the divide that existed between holders of the two degrees where the HND holders are now equal their counterparts with BSc.

ES Inaugurates NBTE Anti-Corruption and Transparency Unit

The Executive Secretary of National Board for Technical Education (NBTE), Dr. Masa'udu Adamu Kazaure has inaugurated the newly reconstituted Anti-Corruption and Transparency Unit (ACTU) of the Board.

In a brief ceremony at the NBTE Secretariat in Kaduna, Dr. Kazaure said that the exit from service of the former chairman of the Unit informed the need for the reconstitution of new members of the unit.

He called on the newly inaugurated members to work closely and effectively with the ICPC to tackle problems not only in NBTE but also in the polytechnic sector.

He urged them to look into the illegalities in the sector and find a lasting solution to them going by the anti-corruption crusade of the present administration.

In a goodwill message by the ICPC Chairman, Mr. Ekpo Nta who was represented by the North West Zonal Commissioner of the Commission, Mr. Olusegun Adigun said the directive for the establishment of ACTU was given to all MDAs as far as 2001. He said the ACTU is supposed to serve as one of the implementation mechanisms for the corruption prevention mandate of the ICPC.

He charged the members of the unit to use the appointment as a turning point for ensuring that the Board does its business in a more accountable and transparent manner.

While urging the newly inaugurated members to be vigilant and attentive, he enjoined all staff of the Board to lend their support to the Unit on the task ahead.

Responding on behalf of the members of ACTU, the Chairman, Arc Kabir Dayyabu thanked the Executive Secretary and Management for the confidence they repose in them and gave the assurance that the team will work diligently and leave up to expectation.

The ACTU team has Arc Kabir Dayybu as chairman, while Tijjani Sule, Bashir Danmulki, Ibrahim Salihu, Yusuf Barau and Maryam Usman Daura are members.

The oath of allegiance was administered on the team by Manniru Muhammad of the ICPC office Kaduna.

COHEADS Tasks Rectors on Integrity during UTME Supervision

Council of Heads of Polytechnics and Colleges of Technology in Nigeria (COHEADS) has charged rector to showcase intelligence, integrity and expertise as their services are being engaged to supervise the 2017 Unified Tertiary Matriculation Examination (UTME).

Arising from its 136th Regular meeting held on 28th March, 2017 at the NBTE auditorium in Kaduna, the Council charged the rector not to compromise the process, but to support the effort of the Joint Admission and Matriculation Board (JAMB) in organizing a credible examination as well as provide equal platform for the candidates.

In his remarks, the Executive Secretary of NBTE, Dr. Masa'udu Adamu Kazaure who was also present at the meeting expressed the need for the creation of skills acquisition centres in the country.

Dr. Kazaure stated that standards and guidelines for establishing these centres will be set and therefore enjoined all the polytechnics to key into it. He said the polytechnics should utilize the opportunity to train and certify staff in line with the guidelines and procedures.

The Executive Secretary said that the skill acquisition centre is an informal type of education whereby assessors will be verified by a verifier while the awarding body issues the certificate.

The Chairman of COHEADS who is the rector of Kwara State polytechnic, Ilorin Polytechnic, Alh. Masud Elelu urged the rector to key into skills acquisition centres which will be of immense help to their communities.

Also, the Secretary General of Commonwealth Association of Polytechnics in Africa (CAPA), Dr. Olubunmi Owosu, said NBTE has gone far in setting up NVQF in Nigeria. He expressed appreciation for the effort of the Executive Secretary for taking Technical and Vocational Education Training (TVET) to another level in Nigeria and Africa at large.

Dr. Owosu charged rector to work with NBTE in raising the campaign to take TVET to a greater height, urging them also to meet up their subscription of the CAPA annual dues and support Nigerians to take elective positions in CAPA.

The commonwealth Association of Polytechnics in Africa is based in Nairobi, Kenya with the vision to be the voice of TVET which is very relevant today than ever.

Bill to End Discrimination against HND Passes Second Reading

The bill for an act to abolish the discrimination between bachelor degree and Higher National Diploma (HND) in the same profession has passed the second reading in the House of Representatives. The bill was passed on 11th April 2017 during a plenary session to prohibit the existing dichotomy between both certificates. Hon. Isa Ali and Hon. Edward Pwajok who co-sponsored the bill which is seeking to create equal employment and promotion opportunities for graduates of polytechnic with that of the university.

Following his statement, Hon. Isa said HND holders in the country suffer serious let down and discrimination over the years which in turn affect their career pursuit. He said that the dichotomy allows holder of first degree to be placed on GL 8 and terminates at 17 while HND holders are placed on GL 7 and terminates at 14. He said that it is illegal and therefore should come to an end.

He said "There have been circulars issued by the Head of Service at different times either to direct that both university graduates and HND holders be treated equally or otherwise. The policy of government has been very consistent, but when it becomes a law, everybody will have to comply."

Contributing to the debate, Hon. Pwajok said a research he carried out on both certificates shows that the discrimination has no moral justification.

Registrars of Health Practitioners Bodies Meet ES NBTE

Registrars of the Committee of Health Practitioners in Nigeria were at the office of the Executive Secretary of the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE), Dr. Masa'udu Kazaure to discuss issues that would move the health sector forward.

While briefing the Executive Secretary on the visit, the chairman of the committee, Alhaji Muhammad Ibrahim said they were in Kaduna to strengthen relationship with the Board and to explore areas of collaboration to eradicate quackery in the system.

Alh Muhammed who commended the Board's efforts in moving the TVET sector forward, called for a scheme of work for the new programmes before introducing them to the institutions as well as the closure of programmes offered in the teaching hospitals across the country and advised that the courses should be moved to the colleges and polytechnics.

Also Speaking, Mrs. Akande Olufunke, representing Medical Rehabilitation Therapist Registration Board (MRTRB) said that it will be preferred if the National Diploma Programmes are run for three years with practical inclusive to qualify the students to be practitioners instead of the one year Industrial Training outside the school.

The registrar, Dental Technologist Registration Board (DTRB), Dr. Olaiya S. Olayinka on his path suggested a- 4 year direct HND programme for all the professionals in the sector while Prof. Uzordike of the Optometrists and Dispensing Opticians Registration Board of Nigeria (ODORBN) said the status quo be maintained as the ND is the middle manpower. She said that nothing should go beyond the given minimum standard of education.

Meeting of NBTE Management with Registrars of Health Practitioners Bodies in Kaduna

Group Photograph of ES and NBTE officials with Registrars of Health Practitioners Bodies during the visit in Kaduna

The representative of the Nursing and Midwifery Council of Nigeria (NMCN), Alheri Yusuf appreciated the flexibility the Board has introduced but argued that since each practitioner has its peculiar problem; members of the committee should meet the board and find a lasting solution to their problems.

In his response, the Executive Secretary of NBTE, Dr. M.A. Kazaure while welcoming the committee said that the Federal Ministry of Education has relaxed the criteria for the establishment of institutions in the country in order to expand access to education, explaining that this informed the reason for the increase in the number of private technical and vocational institutions.

The Executive Secretary further stated that the Board is spearheading the institutionalization of the National Vocational Qualification Framework (NVQF) in the country for the development of skills and competences of Nigerian artisan, technicians and technologists.

He commended the chairman of the committee for initiating the meeting, stressing that it will bridge the communication gap between the Board and the registrars.

The Ag Director, Monotechnics Department, Mrs. Helen Oduntan further expressed the need for the health sector regulatory bodies to assist the NBTE in the development of curriculum. She enjoined the bodies to sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Board and also consult the Board on structures that are required for the institutions while also advising that only competent and reliable representatives should be sent to participate in the Board's accreditation exercise.

NBTE, NATEN Holds Workshop on Revenue Mobilization and Grant Proposal Writing

As part of efforts to diversify the economy, the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE) in collaboration with Network for Agricultural Technical Education in Nigeria (NATEN) organized a workshop on Revenue Mobilization and Grant Proposal Writing for Network of Agricultural Education and Training Colleges.

right we may not have the opportunity to put up the sporting facilities that we are seeing today”

While urging participants to maintain the NIPOGA spirit of sportsmanship, the rector added that irrespective of ethnic and religious differences, Nigerians need each other in their day to day endeavours as no one individual can live in isolation and survive.

The rector said the NIPOGA Council brought the A3 Foundation to the games to emphasize the need for youths to leverage on sports to become entrepreneurs.

The Chief Executive Officer of A3 Foundation, and widow of the late former governor of Kogi State, Prince Abubakar Audu, Hajiya Aisha Audu-Emeje said her foundation put up an active social centre at the host polytechnic in order to produce entrepreneurship minded youths at the end of the fiesta.

She said the Foundation was also able to bring to the games the former Super Eagle's coach, Mr. Samson Siasia and other grassroots sports promoters to boost athletes' morale to put in their best in the competition.

Also, the Deputy Governor of

to carry out their activities.

In his opening remark, the Executive Secretary of NBTE, Dr. M A Kazaure said the apathy to the practice and involvement in agriculture by Nigerians in recent time is a source of great concern under the able leadership of President Muhammadu Buhari.

“Therefore the need of refocusing the interest of the youth in Agriculture is the way forward to increase the country's fortune and also keep the teeming population of youth gainfully employed, thereby taking them off the streets and reducing the prevalence of social ills in the society”.

Dr Kazaure who was represented by the Ag. Director of Monotechnic Programmes department, Mrs. Helen Odutan said, “The Board is particularly interested in the trend, and will insist on entrepreneurship skills development in all programmes within the institutions under her purview”.

The Executive Secretary commended NATEN for organizing the workshop and expressed the hope that the intended goals of the workshop which is to bring about much needed economic growth of our dear country Nigeria would be achieved.

Nasarawa State, Mr. Silas Ali-Agara who represented the state governor at the occasion said the state was solidly behind the games. According to him, “Hosting the NIPOGA will in the long run add value to what the Nasarawa state government was doing in the state”. The Deputy Governor, who unmasked the 19th NIPOGA mascot to declare the games open, further stated that NIPOGA was one of the biggest sporting fiestas in the country, adding that the game will compete or perhaps dwarf the National Universities Games (NUGA) due to the number of constituents.

He noted that the game provides a good avenue for talent hunt and urged athletes to take advantage of the fiesta to excel in their sporting carrier, while also admonishing them to compete in a healthy rivalry and avoid drugs and other negative influences.

In his goodwill message, the Executive Secretary of the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE), Dr. M.A. Kazaure implored athletes to strive hard to win laurels, not by all means, but honourably and by decency to uphold the tenets of the games.

The Executive Secretary who was represented at the event by the Board's Director of physical Planning and Development, TPl. Ekpenyong Ekpenyong, added that the NBTE holds the games in high esteem considering the important

IPPIS Meets Rectors, Bursars and Unions of Federal Polytechnics

Officials of the Integrated Payroll and Personnel Information System (IPPIS) held an interactive meeting with heads of polytechnics, bursars and unions of Federal Polytechnics in Nigeria.

The meeting which held at Kaduna was organized by the National Board for Technical Education (NBTE) to sensitize participants on the IPPIS policy of the Federal Government.

In his address, the leader of the team, Mr. Stephen Ojo said the aim of the IPPIS is to centralize payment and payroll system to ensure convenient and prompt payment of staff remuneration with minimal wastage.

Other objectives of the IPPIS according to Mr. Ojo include easy storage, updating and retrieval of personnel records for administrative and pension processing. It also aids manpower planning and budgetary with correct personnel emoluments of the Federal Government Employee at any point in time.

While suggesting that institutions should be sensitized and the problems of shortfall should be resolved in the institutions before the polytechnics are enrolled in the IPPIS, he said "Similar interactive meetings have been extended to other regulatory bodies like the NUC and NCCE which also have peculiarities that the IPPIS will take care of, provided all the details are submitted and the pension Fund Administration number is correct employees will be captured".

In his remark, the NBTE Executive Secretary, Dr. M. A Kazaure applauded the IPPIS for the initiative which he described
